

FOOD & WINE

Lovers of food and wine are spoiled for choice in Milton and surrounding areas.

In Milton village alone there are a number of quality dining establishments with menus that rival the best that Australia's capital cities have to offer.

From a restaurant that carries the name of a world renowned celebrity chef to award winning fine dining venues offering a full range of cuisine.

Whether it is modern Australian food with Pacific and European influences, French provincial, traditional Australian seafood, wholesome vegetarian or Mexican fare, the restaurants in this area pride themselves on using fresh, and often local, produce with mouthwatering results.

Traditional pub food, a Chinese restaurant and a woodfire pizzeria provide alternative eating options in Milton while, through the day, there is a choice of al fresco cafes and takeaway food outlets.

For those who enjoy a fine drop of red or white, there are some excellent, award winning wineries in the area where quality wine can be tasted and purchased year round.
